Resubmitted, to the Deputy Commissioner Mysore I made confidential enquiries at Chamaraja-Nagar & also consulted the Amildar There are no women who can be nominated to the Municipal Council

Among Aks, the two names suggested by the Amildar are good Mr Doddamallaiah, who is the Sitting Municipal Councillor may be preferred as he is an elderly person who is popular and commands the respect of the Community

Among Lingayetes, M Basavanna & Mr C.G Rajasekhar are both eligible names But Mr Basavanna may be preferred as he is an income-tax Assessee doing good business & popular in his Community

Vaishnavas as a very minor Community in the town Mr Nagannachar S/o Shamiahachar aged 35 & paying an assessment of Rs 25/- (Khatha in the name of his brother) and Mr Mallikarjunachar S/o Srikantachar aged about 45 & paying an assessment of Rs 17-3-0 are two good names

Jains are a very important Community in the Town Mr C E Brahmadevaraj income-tax assessee & leading merchant then principal man But it is ascertained that entangles himself in party factions Mr S P Rajanna S/o PadmaRajaiah aged 27 & paying Municipal tax of Rs 20/- (Khatha is in the name of the father PadmaRajaiah) and Mr S D Naga Kumar S/o Dharanendraiya aged about 50 and doing good business are born good name for nomination

The Kumbar Community has not been represented on the Council since a long time
The two names Mr Ramegowda & Mr Chikka madegowda (proposed by the Amildar) are born eligible The former may be preferred
